

CBFP Facilitation
Bonn Challenge - Pledges in Central Afri

Country	Committed	Economic benefits
Cameroon	2017: 12.06 million hectares by 2030	3,787 million USD
Central African R	2016: 1 million hectares by 2020 2016 2.5 million hectares by 2030 = 3.5 million hectares	1,099 million USD
Chad	2017: 5 million hectares by 2030	Highlighted benefits 1,884 million USD
Democratic Repu	2014: 8 million hectares by 2020	2,512 million USD
Republic of the C	2 million hectares by 2030	628 million USD
Burundi	2015: 2 million hectares by 2020	628 million USD
Rwanda	2011: 2 million hectares by 2020	628 million USD
Total	35,1 million hectare	11,166 million USD

The pledges and the total amount of land committed by countries:

ica: Committed - Econom

Climate benefits
Climate benefits
1.14 GtCO2 sequestered
0.33 GtCO2 sequestered
Ch
0,57 GtCO2 sequestered
Water & Environmental
0.76 GtCO2 sequestered
0.19 GtCO2 sequestered
0.19 GtCO2 sequestered
0.19 GtCO2 sequestered
3,37GtCO2 sequestered

s in Central Africa under the ic benefits - climate benefits - Blogs and Media Links

Blogs and Media
Cameroon to restore 12 million hectares of forest in species-rich Congo Basin
Restoration commitments from Africa push the Bonn Challenge beyond 100 million hectares
Kigali Declaration on Forest Landscape Restoration in Africa
Restoration commitments from Africa push the Bonn Challenge beyond 100 million hectares
Kigali Declaration on Forest Landscape Restoration in Africa
Madagascar announces 5 million hectare restoration commitment to the Bonn Challenge
More nations commit to fight climate change by restoring forests
Leaders pledge to restore additional 18 million hectares of critical landscape
Kigali Declaration on Forest Landscape Restoration in Africa
Restoration commitments from Africa push the Bonn Challenge beyond 100 million hectares

Bonn Challenge to over 35,1 million hectares is as part of global target