

Wednesday, 09/09/2015, 7.45 p.m – 9. P.m
Mystral Lower, Exhibition

COMIFAC invites you to an exciting and informative side event

INTEGRATED MANAGEMENT AND MONITORING OF FORESTS IN CENTRAL AFRICA
Experiences to share for a better forest governance in Congo basin

Moderateur : Clothilde NGOMBA, CBFF

The 12 landscapes of the Congo basin Ecosystem Conservation Program: Assessment and Lessons Learned, Martin TADOUM, COMIFAC

Forest monitoring initiatives in the Congo basin: Lessons Learned, Lionel NGUMA NDAME, JICA

Atlas on land use in Central Africa: a tool for decision makers, Paul SCHOLTE, GIZ

Experiences with the monitoring of agribusiness expansion in the Congo basin
Belmond TCHOUMBA, WWF

Monitoring of Congo basin forests: Contributions of the Observatory of Central African Forests,
Carlos DEWASSEIGE, OFAC

During this event, refreshments will be served. Because of limited space, please confirm your attendance at the following addresses: philippe.bamigbade@giz.de, sato.koyo@ehcjp.com

The forests of the Congo Basin, an invaluable wealth for its people and for local development

Let us facilitate access to environmental information for integrated management of forests in the Congo Basin

Together for the preservation of the Congo Basin forests for the world balance and the fight against climate changes

Cross-border protected areas, a tool of Sub regional integration for promotion of the sustainable development and peace in Central Africa