Congo Basin Forest Partnership
Brazzaville, October 8-9, 2014
Jef Dupain

Market of ideas 5 - Wildlife management in protected areas – New tools and techniques
Use of Cybertracker and SMART
The Species Protection Fund and the Emergency Response Fund

Species Protection Program
Contribute to the long term conservation of representative populations of all nine subspecies of African apes and their habitat

Contribute to the development of effective conservation efforts by actively organizing cross-site and cross-species approaches;

Facilitate development of an African Ape Conservation Toolkit Package
CyberTracking for real time and well informed ad-hoc decision taking
SLIDE OF RANGERS WITH PAPER AND PENCIL OR IN NOT SO GOOD CONDITIONS
Profiles Developed/Scoping done
Sites selected
Training and implementation of CyberTracker in Senegal
Training and implementation CyberTracker in Dja
Upscaling CyberTracking in Lomako
Training and implementation CyberTracker in Dja
Réserve de Faune du Dja: Toutes les Patrouilles
Closing the loop

SMART

Ranger-based data collection

Debriefing

Strategy

Analysis

Data entry
Slide from Liliana JGI in Senegal
To be continued